DCI Weekly Report

Office of the Inspector General

The inspection report of the Office of Finance is now complete and has been forwarded to the Executive Director and the DDCI.

As a result of discussions during the annual Audit Staff conference [] we are now in the process of trying to develop an audit program which will allow us to conduct a systematic, limited audit review of some aspects of compliance with Executive Order 12333.

Within the next few weeks, we intend to reinstitute the practice of interviewing PCS returnees. This will enable us to monitor the health and well-being of our overseas installations and possibly pinpoint areas where OIG attention should be focused.

It might be interesting to note that our Grievance and Investigations Staff investigated 23 cases of alleged illegalities and improprieties in 1983 compared to a like number of 23 cases in 1982. They also handled 36 grievance cases in 1983 compared with 27 in 1982. In 1983 we opened three EEO investigations compared with two in 1982. We think these figures, which are at quite low levels historically (for an Agency of this size), suggest a reasonably happy work force.

We will be working with the director of the National Archives to assist him in organizing a suitable ceremony when the some 300 boxes of OSS operational files which have been held by Archives since 1980 are released to the public. We envision the Archives ceremony will include the DCI, all members of the SSCI and NPSCI, selected OSS veterans, and members of the media.

Publications Review Board

We have prepared a separate year-end report on the PRB which we will be submitting to you, the DDCI and EXDIR. The volume of submissions and the problems posed by ex-employees writing on intelligence-related matters keep growing significantly.

Appearances and Presentations

We briefed the [REDACTED] 20 students from Hope College, Holland, Michigan. They were in Washington on their Honors Semester Program. Four students expressed interest in Agency employment and are in touch with OP's Recruitment Division.
